CLARIFICATIONS

Please notice that the last day for bid questioning is March 14, 2019.

BID QUESTIONS

- Q. Is there any way you can provide me the bid tabs/results the last time this item was bid.
A. This item was purchased through Illinois Central Management Services.
- Q. Do you have the past price the County was paying and awarded?
A. State of Illinois bulk contract price for regular dry salt at $62.05 per ton. Treated salt is a negotiated price at $85.15 per ton.
- Q. In the Bulk Rock Salt bid for the treated salt. It calls for Thawrox or Clearlane or an Approved Equivalent. Can you tell me what we have to do to have our treated salt become an approved product?
A. Any treated salt will have to meet the same properties, performance levels / deicing qualities and abilities as that of the Thawrox or Clearlane. Vendors shall provide documentation and fully state such deviations or exceptions of the proposed Bulk Rock Salt (treated salt) if an "Approved Equivalent" salt as part of their bid response.
- Q. Regarding your bid for Bulk Rock Salt that opens on March 20, 2019, please confirm that item B on page 1 of the Statement of Work for Plain Bulk Rock Salt (untreated) should be treated with an anti-caking agent, such as YPS.
A. All treated & untreated salt shall contain an Anti-Caking Agent such as YPS (yellow prussiate of soda) or Equivalent.
