There is a cost for TVs and monitors

The fee that you pay for TVs and computer monitors – both tube and flat screen – goes directly to the County's contracted electronics recycler, eWorks, a non-profit whose main mission is to employ developmentally disabled individuals.

TVs and Monitors cost $25 (under 21") or $35 (21" & over). Pay at site with cash or card only or Pay online in advance at countyofkane.org/Recycling.

Everything else is free to drop-off

The great news is that all other acceptable electronic items can be dropped off for free. See the full list of items that can be recycled in the program here. And we take Holiday Light strands!

NEXT COLLECTION EVENT

The next Kane County Recycles Event will be held on Saturday 1/14/17, between 8am and 12noon, at 540 S Randall in St. Charles. This event will be for electronics and books only.
