

KANE COUNTY JUVENILE JUSTICE COUNCIL

Spring 2023 Speaker Series

Registration is open to those working with Kane County youth

May 23, 2023

12 PM - 1 PM CST

SESSION 1

This one-hour presentation will focus on promoting avenues to cross-agency data collection as well as exploring practical uses for data, including: identifying existing systemic and practice level strengths and challenges; analyzing the effectiveness of initiatives; understanding demographics and experiences of particular populations; and to support the sustainability of efforts.

SPEAKERS

Alexandra Miller, PhD, Deputy Director for Multi-System Operations at Georgetown University's Center for Juvenile Justice Reform

Judge Bryan Murray, Bannock County, Idaho Juvenile Court Judge

Macon Stewart, MSW, Senior Deputy Director at Georgetown University's Center for Juvenile Justice Reform

Thomas Strauss, MPA, Director & Principal Research Analyst at the Idaho Statistical Analysis Center with the Idaho State Police

May 24, 2023

12 PM - 1 PM CST

SESSION 2

This one-hour presentation will outline how local policymakers, system leaders, and practitioners can develop a strategic approach to reducing recidivism, strengthening community safety, and improving outcomes for youth. Specifically, the presentation will cover how to match youth with the most effective level and type of supervision and services, track system performance and outcomes, hold all parties accountable for results that keep communities safe, and ensure resources are allocated efficiently across the juvenile justice and other youth-serving systems.

SPEAKER

Stephanie Shaw, MA, Juvenile Justice Project Manager, The Council of State Governments Justice Center

CEU's and CPDU's will be available; Spanish Translation available

For more information & direct links to register, please visit:

<https://jjcouncil.countyofkane.org/spring-2023-speaker-series/>