Learn Safe Snowmobiling with the Illinois Snowmobile Safety Course

GENEVA, IL — As winter approaches, it's time to prepare for snowmobiling season. To ensure the safety of snowmobilers, the Illinois Snowmobile Safety Course is here to equip enthusiasts with the knowledge and skills they need.

This free, eight-hour instruction course provides participants with comprehensive training in snowmobiling, including maintenance and repair, safe operation, the history of snowmobiling, first aid, environmental protection, and knowledge of state laws.

The course is led by experienced instructors Ron Julian and Officer Rick Splittgerber. One winter session is available on Saturday, Jan. 6, 2024, from 8 a.m. - 4 p.m. at Forest Preserve District Headquarters, 1996 S. Kirk Rd., Suite #320, Geneva, IL 60134.

Participants must be aged 10 and above. Whether you're new to snowmobiling or an experienced rider, this course will provide you with the essential knowledge and skills to stay safe while enjoying snowmobiling.

To register for the Illinois Snowmobile Safety Course and secure your spot, contact Ron Julian at rgjulian@comcast.net or call 630-546-8058.
