The Kane County Veterans Memorial was conceived in 1997 to honor the men and women of this nation and Kane County who served in the United States Armed Forces. To detail and reflect on the sacrifices made by citizens of Kane County and to honor those county veterans who defended freedom with their lives in the 20th century. The Veterans Memorial remembers and reflects on sacrifices made by Kane County soldier citizens but it is a memorial for all citizens of Kane County with educational and historical references as a reminder that we the people remember and cherish the legacy of freedom, justice, democracy and peace which Kane County veterans have defended.
